General

Whenever representing the Manor at a City / Livery event the Foreman is often greeted with almost incredulity by new Masters of Livery (fortunately not by their Clerks nor by the senior dignitaries, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, Lord Mayor etc) and because of this we have produced a small leaflet to hand out explaining our relationship with the City and our history. The text and illustrations of this leaflet is reproduced at the back part of this Letter. This has led to further enquiries and even some recruitment as Jurors from that connection.

Membership and Tenancy

As the Manor membership expands, so does the cost of running it; nor are we quite big enough to benefit from an economy of scale. The costs of holding the Court Leet have risen and the necessity is now that we have to hire larger venues to hold this means our margins are squeezed. We admitted 5 new jurors and previously lapsed members. The Tithing hopes that this trend will continue and urges all members to introduce a guest to our events in the hope that they will wish to join themselves. Currently we have 113 Jurors Summoned.

PLEASE NOTE:- In compliance with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018, the Manor keeps its record of Jurors Names and Addresses in paper format and does not have any additional information. Communications via email are restricted to replies to enquiries from Jurors to the Clerk exclusively.

SUMMONS TO JUROR SERVICE AND MANOR FUNCTIONS

Both new and not so new Jurors often get confused by the formality of the procedures of the Courts and the social functions they receive information about. The Summonses are issued directly from the relevant Court (Old Bailey, Royal Courts and the Inner London Sessions House) and the invitation to the lunch or dinner comes from the Manor and not at the same time.

The Jurors Lists are formally entered at the Court and added to the Ministry of Justice's statistical returns for the composition of Juries nationally.

Ceremonial Dress of Officers

A query was made as to why the Manor's colours are Red and Silver. The Lord of the Manor of Southwark is the Corporation of London and its heraldic tinctures are Gules and Argent - we therefore wear the City's 'livery'. However, as the Borough Court we wear blue shell gowns with green and 'gold' facings, which are the LBo Southwark heraldic colours.

Note by The Clerk

Remember that if new members are unlikely to become Liverymen but are attracted to the City's traditions, we offer the unique combination of the Southwark arrangements to propose them for the Freedom and to celebrate its receipt at View of Frankpledge and Quit Rents. Of course active Liverymen are very welcome. We have some very senior City representatives at these events, who have indicated that they are most impressed with the ceremonial aspects and conviviality. A general rise in costs for functions over the last two years may be reflected in the subscriptions for these events being revised. The Tithing is mindful that charges have to be levied at a rate that keeps them attractive for the members.

Why are Manor members 'Tenants' and 'Jurors'?

The qualification for 'Listing for Summons' to the Court Leet is being a Tenant in the Manor. In late July the High Bailiff confirms the date of the Court Leet and asks for a list of those qualified (bona fide Tenants) from the Clerk. The Clerk sends the members list of that date to the City Surveyor's Dept (the landlord) with a note to say that all named are jointly and severally liable under the terms of our Lease at Colechurch House; that legal status is a 'tenancy'. The List is then as such sent to the Old Bailey.

However, in the interim period between members joining the Manor and the Court at which one becomes a 'Sworn Juror', they are referred to as just 'Tenants' and this slight difference is similar to the distinction in the City Livery Companies where one is firstly a 'Freeman' of the company and then are 'enclotted' in the Livery as a full member.

Events and Functions of the last year

Court Leet 2016 Our most important event of the year was held on 30th November 2016 in the Nave of St George the Martyr, Southwark. The Court and Lunch was attended by 91 Jurors and Guests, including the Old Bailey team. This was attended by 51 Jurors (2016 was 64; 2015, 57 and previous highest 59 in 2010. Lawrence Day offered to serve on the Tithing as Ale Sizer and intends to progress through all offices. Three were proposed for the Freedom.

Borough Pickwick Club The Tithing's decision to hold a New Year event, in lieu of one at Christmas, the Tithing and Jurors 'posing as' The Borough Pickwick Club, at the Winchester Room at The George Inn on the High Street, a most appropriate location for a Dickensian evening, on the 17th January. The evening of very light entertainment, short readings from the master story writer, but most importantly fellowship and good company involving a Southwark theme. There were 30 members and their guests, a fall on last year's attendance. However, the format was agreed as most entertaining and suitable. It is following the success route of higher attendances and shall outgrow the George Inn in due course, possibly requiring a new venue in due course.

Quit Rents and Court of Exchequer The combined Thanksgiving Service and Quit Rents Ceremony was held on 15th March. Once again the Service was held at our guild-church St George the Martyr, Borough High Street conducted by The Assistant Chaplain and Rector of our Guild Church Rev Jonathan Sedgwick. The Ceremony followed. The Master Roger Eastman, the Acting Queen's Remembrancer, received the Quit Rents on behalf of the Crown from us (on behalf of the City). For this purpose was instituted the Court of Exchequer to which the Southwark Jurors were Summoned. This is one of only four City ceremonies in this format; the others being the Trial of the Pyx, the presentation of the Sheriffs and the presentation of the Lord Mayor. We then hosted a Luncheon at the St George's Hall, prepared by Masters Catering. Some 74 Jurors and their guests attended. Our civic brethren and guests included the Masters and Clerks of the Tax Advisers, the Information Technologists, the Chartered Secretaries, the World Traders and the Turners with their partners and other leading City personages who all expressed their appreciation of the entire event.. One of our practices, which has been remarked upon by visiting livery, is the reading of passages from Some Rules from the Conduct of Life ('the little red book') at the luncheon. This year this was done by the enthusiastic Livery Masters attending. Apparently, visiting livery are much taken with it and have indicated they are to adopt it within their own companies. The Tithing regard the arrangement for this event at St George the Martyr as most suitable, enabling Service, Ceremony and feast to be held at the same convenient and most historic venue.

The History Tour of the Borough The annual guided walk was intended for Saturday 8th April conducted by our Clerk, Tony Sharp, with eleven attendees. These tours are probably the most convenient and accessible way to understand the fascinating history of the Manors. The Clerk is prepared to organise additional tours for members at any convenient time along the same format, he makes no charge for this but insists that attendees join for a social meal afterwards.

Justices and Jurors Lecture & Dinner: This is now one of our most prestigious events and combines our status as threefold, a legal body, a City and a Southwark institution. Although Southwark was the historic home of many courts and their jurisdiction prisons, The King's Bench and the Marshalsea, the Borough Compter, the White Lion, the Clink, the Surrey County gaols and our own Court House and the Union Hall, it is still today the home borough of three Crown Courts and its Coroner's and the Camberwell Green Magistrates Courts; Note 'court Districts' not mere court rooms or houses. It is hard to find any other borough with more than one of these. Uniquely, therefore I presided at a function to entertain and inform, our double mission, the several Senior Residing Justices of the Southwark courthouses at The London Bridge Hotel, Londinium Suite. This year's lecture and dinner was held on 10th May at which 45 attended a fall on last year. Our guests included The High Steward of Southwark & Recorder of London Nicholas Hilliard, The Recorder of Southwark HHJ Roger Chapple, the Senior Resident at Southwark CC HHJ Barbara Taylor, the Senior Resident at Blackfriars HHJ John Hillen, Chief Coroner of England & Wales HHJ Mark Lucraft; Neil Redcliffe, Shreival Candidate; Assistant City Remembrancer Nigel Lefton and HHJ Usha Karu from the Sessions House. We also entertained our new Ho Chaplain Rt Rev Dr Karowei Durgu Bishop of Woolwich. The status of this event is without parallel, not even the City Corporation itself could do this as a formal function and with the list of speakers that we have had thus far has its own pre-eminence on the legal circuit. It was fitting therefore that the speaker was Lord Justice Sir Adrian Fulford, the Investigatory Powers Commissioner, who spoke on the lessons of the Nuremburg Trials and Crimes Against Humanity cases.

The Rochester Visit has now become a regular feature of our year, hosted by our sister FEW Guild, The Rochester Oyster and Floating Fishery, held on Saturday/ Sunday 8th and 9th July. This is a working guild and company of fisherman and has statutory rights of Presentment at the said court which is presided over by the Admiral of the Medway the Mayor of Medway borough with a group of six robed Councillors forming the Admiralty Court. The day started with the Admiralty Court held in the beautiful Guildhall. The Manor Officers were also permitted to convey the Greetings of the Rt Hon the Lord Mayor Andrew Parmley, to the Mayor, Cllr David Wildey, the Court and Freeman of the Medway. We then processed the Mayor of Medway from the Guildhall to the river and then took to boats for beating the bounds to Hawkwood Stone and ended with an entertaining luncheon at the Rochester Cruising Club. Once again, this year we were provided by the City of London Port Health Authority with the Lady Aileen 50ft launch for both days of the event which enabled us to provide places aboard for up to 10. We are extremely grateful for the warm hospitality extended to the Manor by the Rochester guild, the Cruising Club and Mayor of Medway every year at this event. This event is by invitation to the Manor Officers and therefore as guests ourselves we cannot invite Manor members on a subscription basis.

The 'Bridge House-Yard Lecture & Dinner', was held on 13th September at our The London Bridge Hotel. The dinner is always preceded by a Lecture on the history of the Borough or of Greater London. This year the lecturer was given by Suzanne Marie Taylor of the Rose Theatre on the 'Discovery and Recovery' of The Rose as an archaeological site and use as a performance venue. Our principal guest was the Chief Commoner Wendy Mead OBE, The Master Waterman, Simon McCarthy and his Clerk, Colin Middlemiss, the Recorder of Southwark, HHJ Usha Karu, and Lt Col Larry Davis, City of London North East Sector Army Cadet Force with Flt Sgt Dorian Pursey, '34 F' (Balham and Tooting) Squadron Air Training Corps representatives of two Military Reserve & Cadet Units which we trust to develop a deep association with and last but not least our old friends from the City of London Port Health Authority Jon Avern its Director with his Senior Launch Manager Stuart Smith. Only 45 Jurors and guests attended, which was a fall on last year, and the date may be too early for the calendar and will be reviewed perhaps moving this to an afternoon/ Lunch time; the Tithing welcomes feedback on this.

Because of the slightly longer 'year' between Courts we are able to include the 2016 Annual Sheep Drive of the Woolmens' Company on 24th September 2017, the Manor's formal welcome to the Sheriffs and Livery Masters was well received and Foreman Peter presented the Master Woolman, Christopher Thierry, with an engraved Tankard.

The Tithing would urge all of the members to try and come to these functions with friends, partners and paying guests. Those of you who are Liverymen who intend to sponsor persons for the Freedom by Redemption without the intervention of a Livery Company are urged to consider making use of the View of Frankpledge and Thanksgiving Service and Quit Rents Ceremony events to be proposed for and celebrate the receipt of the Freedom in a suitable commemorative and dignified way.

Invitations to Guilds, Livery functions etc Throughout the year either myself, an Officer, or the Clerk represented the Manor as invited guests at Livery and City events.

On 10 January our Clerk was a guest at the Plasterers Company's Spring Clerks' Dinner. On 23rd February myself and Clerk and others attended the World Traders annual Tacitus Lecture and Reception at Guildhall - this was given by Sir Simon Fraser, GCMG on 'The World is our Oyster? Britain's Future Trade Relationships' after Brexit. On 23rd March I represented the Manor with the Clerk at the Spring Luncheon with other Livery Masters and Clerks of the Turners Company, Master Nicholas Somers is a Juror, at Apothecaries Hall. The Tax Advisers invited myself and the Clerk to their Annual Civic and Charities Luncheon on 19th June at Girdlers Hall. On 14th June myself and the Clerk were official guests at 'The Presentation of the Knollys Rose'. The Company of Watermen and Lightermen of the Thames went to All Hallows by the Tower garden and plucked a Rose flower and took it, led by the Doggett's Men with oars, to the Mansion House to the Lord Mayor followed by a Reception there then another before Lunch at Watermen's Hall!. On 10th July the Clerk represented the Manor at the AGM of the Sheriffs' and Recorder's Fund.

The Watermen's Doggett's Coat and Badge Wager was held on 17th July. Indeed, I was the principal guest of honour of the Master on the Cruise and Luncheon because like the Watermen we are not a Livery (the Livery are entertained by the Fishmongers). Further invitations:- The Livery City University and Cass Business School Lectures are an opportunity to meet informally a very wide selection of Masters and Clerks. We are, due to our location, members of the London Bridge Business Improvement District and this affords an opportunity for networking and promoting the Manor among the local business community, which includes the international HQs of many major corporations. On 20th September myself and the Clerk attended the Company of Fuellers Annual Ezra Lecture at which Lord Deben (John Gummer). On 27th September we joined the entire Livery Masters at the annual National Army Museum Reception. My final duty before standing down at the forthcoming Court Leet I shall be an Official Guest of the Upholders Company Annual Mansion House Banquet due to the Master Upholder, our own Judy Tayler-Smith (Afeeror) being its Master on the 26th October.

Finances and Audit of Accounts With this letter you will find a copy of the abstract of the Audited Accounts which are placed before the Annual Meeting. As you can see, above, the Tithing has chosen Freddie Trowman and Ian Wingfield to undertake these duties from next year. Authority over expenditure on goods and services is exercised by the Tithing and the Tithingmen.

Banking and Audit Procedure: - All Expenditure is approved by the Tithing under general administration or as special purchases; the Tithing also receives Banquet Budget Reports from the Clerk at their meetings to monitor. Cheques / Payments are raised by the Treasurer on request of the Clerk, backed by an Invoice/ Receipt. All Income Pro Forms for goods/ services/ banqueting are retained and payments banked by the Clerk. Receipts and Pro Forms are attached to a narrative Memo by the Clerk and are given to the Auditors at the next Tithing Meeting, along with Bank Statements, with any used Pay-In and Cheque Books, to check off. The full narrative is also given on the Income and Expenditure report. The Auditors receive all other Pay-In and Cheque Books at end of FY to complete the account, balances and Income and Expenditure report, with the Treasurer and Clerk. The abstract of the Accounts are approved by the Auditors as attached to the Annual Letter.

Note by the Auditors

The Tenancy Fee Account has to carry the costs of communications, the Tenancy Fee and sundry other items which the membership as a whole ought in fairness to carry, such as funding the costs associated with the Court Days and entertaining our official guests. However, at the last Tithingmen's meeting of 13th September the accounts and expenditures were reviewed and it was considered unnecessary to change the Fee for 2017-19.

Merchandise & General Account. Originally this account generated major surpluses by sales to third parties and was our principal subsidy when the Manor was expanding its activities and before we could recruit a 'critical mass' of support to events and membership. These 'customers' have now declined due to the recession and now the account's activity was mainly of expenditure and stock purchase. The value of the stock is written down as nominal on purchase as it is acquired as a much larger order the cost of which is covered on the initial part sale. The value of the stock is realised as full profit at sales. The prices for Guildable Manor Merchandise for our own members are deliberately set at below High Street rates to encourage membership identity, in most cases they are priced at a little above cost. These items are of exceptional quality and value.

Banqueting Account. With the combination of attenders and reasonably priced caterers this account again realises modest surpluses, which are applied to charity. Event subscriptions are closely budgetted to attract support. All of our major functions follow a format of an Event, be it ceremonial or a talk or other entertainment, a good quality meal at excellent prices with drink, usually with excellent company and official guests. This is a sensible mixture of formal and informal. No Livery Company can offer this value and no City Ward Club has this level of civic status and pomp. I would ask all members to bring guests with a prospect of joining a unique institution as an introduction to the rich heritage of both the City of London and Southwark.

Charitable Donations (Banqueting Account) The Tithing, in accordance with last year's Annual Meeting made further contributions to charitable objects, many of these were laying in long-term 'goodwill' with various institutions to develop better relationships. Some payments for venue hire are treated as 'gifts' as that is the way the relevant institution prefers this to be regarded. In fact despite a certain decline in attendances to certain functions in the year we have largely maintained our charitable donations. The Tithing of Officers shall vary these amounts as to what is a prudent disbursement in regard to the balance of the Accounts.

Queries

If any one has any questions arising out of this Letter, the Accounts or from the Minutes of the last General Meeting, (previously distributed and reproduced below) the point of circulating these in advance is to ask you to give me Notice, in reasonable time before the meeting, so that a detailed answer can be prepared and made at the Annual Meeting at which these documents shall be taken 'as read'. Any AOB questions at the meeting shall be dealt with in full in writing after the meeting. Likewise, at any other time during the year, if members have any queries of, or want to make suggestions to, the Tithing then a note about these shall receive a detailed and considered reply.

Yours sincerely,

GVILDABLE MANOR

What has Southwark to do with the City?

A Summons from the 'Old Bailey'

“Juror of the Town and Borough of Southwark ‘Guildable Manor’: You are hereby summoned to appear personally before the High Steward of the said Manor, at a Court Leet and View of Frankpledge with the Court Baron of the Mayor and Commonality and Citizens of the City of London to be held at (a venue and date/ time) then and there to serve as a Juror of the said Court. Hereof you are not to fail on pain of amerciamment. High Bailiff”

Since the Georgian era the High Steward of Southwark has usually been a supplementary office of the Recorder of London (the senior judge of the Central Criminal Court at Old Bailey), with the High Bailiff of Southwark being an additional office of the Under Sheriff & Secondary of London (the senior officer of that Court). This arrangement of the City’s Law Officers Swearing the Jurors (‘freemen’) and Foreman and Tithing (‘Master and Wardens’) is unique in the City, unlike the Liveries and guilds which Swear their own Freemen and Courts of Assistants. The City’s authority in Southwark in relation to its manors there dates from 1327, considerably pre-dating most of the livery companies foundations. The City supported Isabella and Mortimer’s revolt against Edward II and jurisdiction over Southwark was one of its rewarded and privileges for that. However, it is the Manor’s officers which conduct all ceremonial in the Borough and not (as in the City) the Guildhall officials.

Procedure; The Court is assembled, the Jurors are sworn in and they name their Foreman and he names a Constable, an Affeeror, a Flesh Taster and Ale Conners, who take their oaths. The Affeeror, a-fee-rs ie prices the fines; the Ale Conners and the Flesh Taster are appointed to test the quality and measure of beers and meats, ie check weights and measures. The High Bailiff then reads the Riot Act, from an original King’s Printers Copy without which it has no proclamatory validity. After this the Foreman states any ‘presentments’, ie the cases he wishes to present. There have been none since the early Victorian period. The High Steward then delivers his ‘charge’ to the Jury, a talk on some historical matter or an issue of some current legal concern and controversy. The Court then adjourns to allow the Jurors to continue in a convivial way entertaining their guests and the Old Bailey officers to a festive meal.

The Courts Leet of the Ancient Manors of Southwark

The members of the ‘Guildable Manor’ are the Free Tenants or Burgesses of the ‘Town and Borough of Southwark’. The original burh of Southwark (fuðringa geþeorce) was founded by Alfred the Great ca 879-880 as part of a system of 33 forts to defend the kingdom of Wessex from the Vikings. As the ruins of ‘Londinium’ where at that time occupied by a Viking army and not settled by Alfred until 886 then Southwark was a ‘borough’ before the ‘City of London’ was so. These forts had become by the late tenth century settlements and towns in which there were markets, tradesmen/ craftsmen and a mint. The denizens had certain rights within the feudal system which meant they were ‘free’ of manorial obligations, indeed they began to exercise within their settlements what were effectively manorial rights of a ‘lord’. Apart from trade and administrative control the ‘freemen’ or burgesses (burh members) also dispensed local justice and this too grew from an early Anglo-Saxon procedure of the frid-borh. This was the ‘peace-oath’, which required all freemen to pledge by oath to uphold the peace of the realm. They did this by binding each other in mutual cogniscence, usually in an assembly of a tenth part, a ‘tything’, of a ‘hundred’ (a subdivision of a shire with a taxable value of a hundred hides). This procedure is prefigured in King Alfred’s law codes by an arrangement called the gegilden and references to tenth century ‘frith gilds’.

Domesday

The clearest proof of the ancient status of the Southwark free-tenants is their first written appearance; this is in Domesday Book compiled in 1086 for William I ‘the Conqueror’. This was a national record of account to list what was owed to the king by his tenants in chief, his fellow Norman conquerors and the senior Prelates of the Church, whom were the greatest landholders. These in turn had sub-let to others, so that ownership and duties, either food-rents or military services, had become confused as to who owed them, the tenant in chief or the under-tenant. The king therefore sent his commissioners across the nation to interrogate these to provide evidences, they also asked the king’s local agent in the shires or counties to confirm these statements, the ‘shire-reeves’. These sheriffs could not know everything, but they could ask the local freemen on oath to announce their opinion of this information. The point is that the freemen could express the truth in the knowledge of royal protection from the wrath of local magnates. In the sections of Domesday Book in regard to our manor, the ‘Men of Southwark’ are shown as doing this. In 1295 the first Parliament to summons representatives of the shires and boroughs, included two Members from Southwark elected by the burgesses.

Jurors of Southwark

Breaches of the peace were dealt with by mutual sanction, ie the freemen had to deliver a miscreant as summonsed to a court of justice, usually that of a sheriff or deputy. The hearing of a court involved witnesses, accused and neutrals; that arrangement is the foundation of trial by jury. Only freemen could give an oath (anyone who was a bondsman of another would be unable to do so) and so only freemen could form the jury. If the accused did not appear, the remaining members could swear an oath to the effect that they had no hand in the escape of the summoned man. If they did not swear this oath before the court, the tything would be held responsible for the deeds of the fugitive, and would be held collectively responsible and pay any fines for the offender's actions.

Therefore, the peace-pledge is the freemen's-pledge and the Norman French word for Freeman was 'frank'. The 'View of Frankpledge' is the mutually cogniscent oath of the freemen to uphold the king's peace. That is therefore a royal or national law court held at local level, shire, borough or manor. The other court of a manor is the Court Baron, ie of the lord of the manor or land-lord to whom complaints and proofs of tenurial obligations on his land would be made. This was a strictly local customary matter, but a 'civil' court of first instance. As both Court Baron and View were assemblies at which freemen would be involved (free-tenants of a manor held property by 'burgage' ie money-rent, not labour-rent as bondage) it was a simple step to regard these courts as the same assembly but dealing with either local 'civil' matters or 'national' criminal concerns. English law was 'common' ie nationally similar.

Manor Officers

Manors were jurisdictions to themselves before the development of local councils and the modern justice system. The Lord of the Manor required that the tenants under him should form a group to put offenders against the peace to trial and appoint representative officers under the Foremen. They in turn used this assembly, the Court Leet, as the forum for them to make complaints to the landlord, to pay their rent/ rates, to hold inquests and to maintain the Peace by enforcing their judgments, hence the role of Constable. The taking of fines and other fees was the duty of the Affeeror. The Jury combined the roles of weights and measures inspectors by appointing some of their fellows to check on local traders and the fitness of the goods they sold, thus the appointment of Ale-Conners and Flesh Tasters. Like all juries the person who delivered, or 'presented' the verdict to the lord was the Foreman.

The City acquires the two other Southwark Manors: Charter of 1550

The Manor Officers process the Foreman, High Steward and High Bailiff and other City justices to the Court House, ca 1695

Despite taking charge of the burh the original problem of legal control had not been effective, especially as the built up area and population grew around the original settlement. The City was constantly trying to get the other authorities in Southwark to co-operate with it to ensure effective policing and due process. The City therefore decided to acquire the two neighbouring manors next to the Guildable. The opportunity arose consequent on Henry VIII's Reformation which abolished the privileges of the monasteries. Edward VI's guardians agreed to part with the Crown's interest..

The charter is dated 23rd April 1550. These properties are now informally known as the Great Liberty and the King's Manor (the words "Liberty" and "Manor" are interchangeable).

The City also created an additional Alderman to have special jurisdiction over these officials and declared the area as a Ward of the City which for that purpose was called "Ward of Bridge Without". Aldermen of the City have always been elected, either 'once for life' or nowadays for six years. However, the incumbent of the new Ward was anomalous in that he was not elected by the local tenants and freemen but appointed by the Court of Aldermen. As the Recorder~High Steward was also appointed by the Court of Aldermen this meant Southwark had two associates on that body neither of whom were ever elected within the Ward. There were never any Common Councilmen for the Ward, the Courts Leet fulfilled that representative function. The three Southwark Courts Leet retain the right to sit for their customary business including "...the appointment of traditional officers" as a limited jurisdiction under the 'Administration of Justice Act 1977; §23 (1)(b) and Sch 4 Pt III'.
